Course Name: World Religions	Period:
Level: Mixed	Room Number:

Course Description

This course engages students in the examination of world religions, particularly Judaism, Christianity, Islam and Eastern religions. This is a survey course that will help students understand the basic similarities and differences between the religious traditions so they can interact with others with acceptance and familiarity. We live in a multi-faith global community. With the knowledge of this course, students ought to be able to understand more clearly the world's religious affairs.

Evaluation Policy

Students will be assessed & evaluated according to the work produced & skills displayed. Methods of providing feedback will include assessing work in process & evaluating completed assignments, tests, co-operative learning activities, simulations and presentations. Peer & self-evaluations will also be utilized. Student marks will be determined by evaluating process & product according to 4 categories & 4 levels.

Feedback will also be provided for student learning skills. Skills like working independently, team work, organization, work habits and homework, and initiative are assessed independently student achievement and will be conducted through the use of a rubric indicating specific criteria to be achieved to receive each of the following letter grades:

E –Excellent G – Good S – Satisfactory N - Needs Improvement

Other Evaluation Issues:

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: Late Work will be accepted for up to five school days (with a penalty of up to 10%). However, late work will not be accepted if the teacher has already returned the corrected assignment to the class.

STUDENT ABSENCES: Students are responsible for the completion of assignments, notes, reading and tests that were missed during any absence. Students with verified absences (proof of reason) must write missed tests or hand in assignments on the first day back following the absence. Unaccountable absences (ie. skips, truancy) will result in a mark of zero for missed evaluations. In the case of a prolonged excusable absence, the assessment date will be established at a mutually satisfactory time. The appropriate vice principal should be notified regarding extended absences.

PLAGIARISM The submission of any 'copied' material, either in whole or in part, will result in the student receiving a grade of 0% on the affected assignment. This position applies to text, electronic information and peer created materials.
